Report: Schiff Funneled $60 Million U.S. Tax Dollars to His Ukrainian Friend and 'Corrupt' Arms Dealer Igor Pasternak

Disgraced Rep. Adam Schiff is close buddies with a crooked Ukrainian arms dealer by the name of Igor Pasternak.

They're so close, as a matter of fact, that Pasternak held a fundraiser for Schiff in his home.

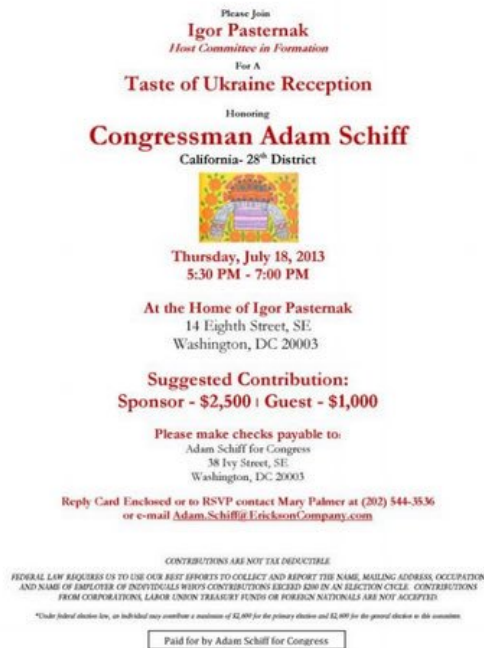

Investigative journalist Lee Smith of the Hudson Institute and the Weekly Standard has revealed that House Intelligence Committee chair Rep. Adam Schiff boasts some shifty ties to a possibly corrupt Ukrainian businessman who was born in the former Soviet Union.

Lee specifically found that Schiff boasts ties to a Soviet-born businessman, Igor Pasternak, who serves as the founder and CEO of Worldwide Aeros Corp., a company that manufactures blimps and weapons for both commercial clients and governments.

Though Pasternak was born in the former Soviet Union and reportedly launched his first company in Ukraine roughly 25 years ago, he suddenly relocated to an area near Schiff's district in California. Then, just six years back, it appears he and Schiff suddenly became close pals.

"In 2013, Pasternak hosted a fundraiser for Schiff. No big deal, right?" Fox News host Laura Ingraham revealed during a discussion with Lee this past Tuesday.

A flyer from the event shows that the fundraiser was held at Pasternak's home in "honor" of Schiff, who at the time had been running for California's 28th Congressional District. [Bizpacreview]

After this fundraiser in 2013, Schiff suddenly started talking about Ukraine a lot. He began demanding that we send money and arms to Ukraine. He was so belligerent and adamant about it, that he was even vehemently opposing Obama on the matter. Eventually, Schiff's hard work paid off, and he managed to secure $60 million U.S. tax dollars for his Ukrainian friends arms business.

"But that's until you realize how Adam Schiff's priorities completely shifted. Before this time, Schiff rarely, if ever, mentioned Ukraine. But after the fundraiser, he used multiple television appearances to basically demand that we send money and arms to them," Ingraham continued.

Moreover, Schiff did so in defiance of the Obama administration, as noted in a 2015 report from The New York Times entitled, "Defying Obama, Many in Congress Press to Arm Ukraine."

His efforts appear to have been successful. According to reports, Aeros received $60 million from Obama's Department of Defense for one of its projects.

According to Lee, it's all part of a larger pattern.

"I think it's part of a larger pattern we've seen over the last three years regarding the entire Russiagate hoax and operation," he said. "First of all, we have Christopher Steele, who we know was working for a Russian oligarch. We had the producers of the Steele dossier from Fusion GPS, and they were also working for Russian oligarchs." [Bizpacreview]

What's happening right now, is we have massive Democrat and Ukraine corruption going on right under our noses – and in a futile effort to throw the American people off the trail, these bozos are trying to "frame" Trump.
